

Kuna/Meridian FFA Chapters Meridian Lions Club Fred Beckman Memorial Good Citizen Award

The Meridian Lions Club Youth Program along with the Fred Beckman Foundation has made available an annual award to a member(s) of the Kuna FFA or Meridian FFA chapters. The award is presented in memory of Fred Beckman who dedicated his life work to teaching students and advising the FFA. He was also a long time member of Lions Clubs International. The award will go to one or two senior(s) of the Kuna or Meridian FFA chapters who have been active and demonstrated good citizenship in their respective communities and FFA chapters. Preference may be given to a special needs student. It is expected that the award would be used to further the education or training of the recipient(s).

The scholarship award:

- Up to $500 for one or two seniors – one will receive up to $500 or if two are awarded it would be $250 each
- Payable directly to the student(s)
- Recipients(s) will be chosen by the Meridian Lions Club

Scholarship Eligibility Requirements:

- Current senior in Kuna or Meridian High Schools
- Applicant has demonstrated outstanding character and citizenship in their school and community
- A member in good standing and an active participant in their respective FFA Chapter

Award applications must be completed, including required signatures, and postmarked on or before April 15, 2014. Please do not place application in a presentation folder.
