

Kuna FFA Chapter

Code of Ethics

I will conduct myself at all times in order to be a credit to my organization, chapter, school and community by:

1. Dressing neatly and appropriately for all FFA activities.
2. Showing respect for rights of others and being courteous at all times.
3. Being honest and not taking unfair advantage of others.
4. Refrain from inappropriate displays of affection.
5. Being prompt and on time for meetings and/or departure times.
6. Refraining from loud, boisterous talk, swearing, and horseplay.
7. Demonstrating sportsmanship in the show ring, judging contests, or meetings.
8. Being modest in winning and generous in defeat.
9. Respecting the rights of others in discussions and meetings.
10. Being courteous at all times to FFA advisors, chaperones, and FFA members from other chapters.
11. Attending all scheduled activities and events when traveling with the Kuna FFA delegation unless given specific permission by the advisors.
12. Not riding in any vehicle other than those specified by the advisors.
13. Clearing and obtaining permission of the advisors to visit relatives while on trips with written permission of the parents.
14. Being responsible for your own personal property and belongings.
15. Taking pride in our organization and conducting oneself in a manner that brings respect and honor to the chapter and FFA organization.
16. Having a positive, pleasant, and cooperative attitude while on trips and group activities.
17. Following all parts of the Kuna High School student handbook.
18. Refraining from smoking, chewing tobacco, alcoholic drinks, or other controlled or banned substance or any illegal activities, while on FFA sponsored activity or trip.
19. Not being alone, and/or behind closed doors in the room of students of the opposite sex.
20. Observing curfew times and discipline guidelines decided by the advisors at any particular FFA related activity.

I have read and agree to the above mentioned rules of conduct and agree that failure of my student to abide by these rules will be my responsibility. Punishment for failure to follow the rules may include being sent home at the parent expense, up to 1 year suspension from all FFA activities, and forfeiting all future overnight travel opportunities.
